Tony tops Bondhay (or Hair)

Tony finds some form at Bondhay with a splendid 27 points. 8 points scored on two holes which incidentally were on both the nearest the pins and he birdied both of them, unfortunately for him though he only won one of the wines as Geoff decided to spoil his party.

Joint second on the with 26 were Rob and Sean. Sean making a charge in challenging Phil for the Caratella Cup, and Rob once again showing some great form in getting to the final of the matchplay final by disposing Geoff 7 & 6. Now to meet me in the final at one of the next two remaining rounds of the year. Well don Rob, have a drink on me or perhaps on the floor. Knock yourself out!!

The course was in great condition, but it did need some TLC in one or two areas. A few interesting holes that were quirky. Great to see sand traps and water hazards to increase the fines tally. The most fines of the year so far at an event.

The greens were indifferent. They looked slow and patchy. They were faster than expected and foxed a few of us. Some great challenging holes that tested accuracy, power and your counting skills. I must admit though that the 18th was a great finishing hole.

Positives? The breakfast was great by all accounts and the drive easiness to find and get to it was less challenging than some of the holes.

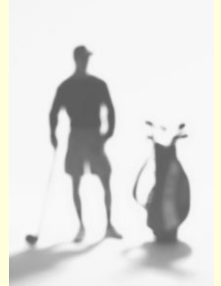

It was great to see David Oliver back playing with us. When I mean back, I mean back playing with us in the trees. No change there then.

The presentation is only round the corner now and Phil will be in touch with all the details you require to start recruiting guests to join us. Watch this space. Well, watch you emails in the first instance.

The next two events come fast furiously so please get your monies in for both if you can asap, especially if you know you are going. The next event will now be Beeston Fields Golf Club on Sunday 21st September 2025 which falls on International Day of Peace, oh the irony in this current climate. This is pastures new again.

Please get your monies into me if you intend to go. See you there.
