Ian "Rockets" to the Top at Elton

Ian Callaghan produced another display of faultless golf on at Elton Furze and puts himself in the running for the Caratella Cup. A sound 31 points with no blips by scoring on every hole. The bridie on 12 probably was the difference in coming top where he amassed four points. In second sees the continuous improvement of Sean Mitchell with 29 and Steve Moore joining him with 29 points too.

The course as usual was fantastic. Disappointed with the number of attendees but still we had fun. A very quirky course with trees everywhere. Loved the par 3 nearest the pin. Either you go through the gap or go high over the trees. I did neither, probably like most of us. Would like to play it again though and see how I play it this time. The greens from memory were average but ran true.

We now look forward to the long-awaited presentation evening. This is nearly upon us now, on Saturday 19th November which is the date you need to have engrained in your head. Please get in your numbers, menu choices (will be out soon) and monies in to me or Phil asap.

Time is going fast and so we require your urgent response in getting all information to us as well as recruiting friends and family to join us on a great evening, once we get all the information out to you.

Well done to Steve for winning the matchplay. See brief report below.

Really disappointed that this year the numbers at events have been low and in turn a lot of the matchplay matches have resulted in walkovers. Not ideal. For future reference, to make sure games are played they can be played outside of society events to ensure as many matches can be played as possible.

I look forward to seeing you all on Saturday 19th November. The dress code is the usual jacket and tie and ladies looking awesome.

The next event is on 25th September 2022 at Lingdale Golf Club. The last and excellent event of the year, with the hope of the weather holding out for us for a final time. Get your monies into me as a matter of urgency if you haven't done so already.

MATCHPLAY FINAL

Rob Luxton v Steve Moore

What a game this was. I witnessed this match and Rob was under the cosh from the offset with Steve taking an early lead. Steve was playing well, and Rob was not his usual reliable and accurate self. A bad combination if you want to win. At the turn Steve was 3 up with Rob hanging in. The robots on the course were a slight distraction as we thought they might at any point rise and take over the world. Then, Steve would have to go back in time and beat one of them in a breakfast eating competition to bring them down. I thought the world had turned on its head when Rob topped a 9 iron into the ditch in disgust. To follow that up he threw it down on the floor and it bounced into the ditch. Oh! how we laughed!! After 10 holes Steve went 4 up. Rob then started firing on cylinders. Back 8 saw Rob coming in 1 over par but still could win (giving 21 shots) as Steve hit trees but then ended up in the fairway. That was followed by chipping close and holing putts from 20 feet. Nail in the coffin was Steve holing a long putt again on 17 to win 3 & 1. All the damage for Rob was done on the front 9. Congratulations to both players for a great match and well done to Steve for winning the Matchplay event for the first time.
