Phil "Power" McShane wins at Lingdale.

That headline sounds as though he is a PGA pro winning a tour event. Well, he certainly did win on the EGS tour. Not a rival to PGA tour or LIV. He talked about not playing very well and then produces another convincing round with 33 points. 33 with 2 no returns on the card. 15 front and 18 on back with one par on the back 9. A steady round with no heroics, except saving Private Palmer from being run over by his own single man buggy. I have also just noticed that Phil really, really, really likes this course and may join it next year. Looked at last year's results and he won on that occasion too. Well done.

Now on to the most important job for you Phil. Organising another fabulous presentation evening on 19th November 2022 at Weston Hall. In second place sees Martin with 31 points. Again, two no returns but on the back 9, oh how we all play holes differently (steady Phil & Steve). 17 on front and 14 on the back. Again, no major big points, just another consistent round, plodding his way round. Speaking of steady, in third place see Stuart coming with 29, but not so many two or three pointers despite again only three no returns.

Once again, the course did not disappoint us. Some were that excited that they were doing wheelies in their buggies. The greens were quick even though they did not look it. Breakfast was nice and a challenging course that makes you think. Sadly, we won't be going next year as I have already booked next year's itinerary, you know me, I like to get these things booked if I can straight away if they let us. It was also good to see the guests again to join us. We need more of this from members to invite guests to join us at events and at presentation evenings.

As you can see the results of the year are now on and it's been a close one this year. Nobody running away with and somehow (I don't know how) but I have won the Caratella Cup. I may have fixed it, but we will let audit decide that but excel doesn't lie. The below link gives you the full run down of the roll of honour for 2022. Have a look and if you notice any mistakes then please keep them to yourselves...

The next big thing coming our way is the PRESENTATION EVENING on SATURDAY 19th NOVEMBER 2022 at WESTON HALL. All it takes is one member to bring 3 others to fill the room up. Let's see if we can do that this year. You all have had the information from Phil now, cost, menu and entertainment. We also have new comperes. That will be exciting to see what they have planned. Presentation Evening – Venue booked, entertainment booked, meal booked, rooms booked, is your place/table booked? Get it done now with Phil.

I look forward to seeing you all then.
