Richard Unlocks Three Locks

Richard serves his first win at Three Locks with a splendid 30 points. An amazing back 9 of 18 points helped matters and surged him at the top by one point ahead of Dave Palmer. Richard's round had many no returns, but at the same time he also had a few 3 pointers and a 4 pointer. His best round so far in the society. Let's hope this form continues at the next and final event at Kidderminster. In second and on his way to winning the Matchplay final (after receiving a walkover against Rob in the semi-final) against the in-form Stuart, Dave accumulated a respectable 29. Started off with good back 9 and where the damage was done. Stuart never got his nose in front at all and was giving away 3 shots. In third place with 27 and now the hot favourite of winning the Caratella Cup is Alan. A sort of consistent round in both halves but was unlucky on one of the par 5's to hit the middle of the fairway and not find his ball. That was cruel. Alan sits at the top and am sure will have worked out the permutations of what is required in winning. I have tried to work out what I need to do!!

Three Locks turns out to be a nice course and was agreed by everybody else. It's just shame they don't do full English breakfasts. As usual (at Nicks request) I sorted the sun out and removed all threats of rain and thunderstorms. I don't just do it for anybody Nick! Surely by now you must all believe that I have full power and control of the weather.

Back to the course. The course in general was a challenge and believe might have been a little hard on the legs. Everyone survived though. Greens were quick and the fairways were nice. Some excellent holes too. Some interesting holes and the course played well. Only issue was finding a car park space but was then told they do have an overflow car park. A bit late. Quite a lot of par 3's and par 5's to balance it out.

Oh and more thing.. nothing special but Mr DAVE PALMER has had his and the Societies first ever HOLE IN ONE. It happened on the second hole. Came in off the rough and went in. What a great shot and achievement. Big congratulation Dave.

The next event and final event of the year is at Kidderminster Golf Club on Sunday 8th September 2024. Please get your monies into me if you intend to go. See you there.
