Stuart chased but nowhere to be seen

Has Stuart produced the biggest marginal win since the election? A whopping 8 points between 1st and 2nd. An outstanding score of 15 on the front 9 and 19 on the back. He is back to his consistency and is now making his mark to push for the Caratella Cup. 34 points without a single par on the card. Oh! I remember the days when I used to get a shot a hole. Don't want them days back though. In a battle for 2nd place somewhere in the distance we see Steve Moore and Sean battling it out and with both hitting 26 points. Steve pips it on the back 9 on countback.

There were some very indifferent scores like most society days. The weather once again was excellent. Stuart, all I can say is look who is waiting to do something to your handicap.

It was a shame we only had 11 attend this course. One pulling the night before due to an injury and one not realising that we had rescheduled the Chase event for the 21st July.

Despite this the course was in great condition. I found the greens were a bit slow but did run true. We were well looked after by the staff (aye SM 😊). The Pro shop also looked after us and the prices for the buggies were cheap compared to all the other courses we have visited. Even leading up to the event the communication was excellent. A big thank you goes out to all of them.

This was the first event since the weekend away at the Players. It seems everyone enjoyed themselves immensely, with great company and the weather holding off.

The next event is not far away, a week. A quick turnaround. Shirland Golf Club. Numbers are looking low again for this as a lot of players are away. We will still make the most of it though. Looking at the forecast it looks like the weather is going to be kind to us.

Cut off for this date is Wednesday 24th July 2024. Please get your monies into me if you intend to go. See you there.

The demographics of our Golf Society

Standing on the 10th tee about to tee off and a discussion ensued about who is putting how much away for their pension or how much they are drawing. Wow! Wander what the average age is of the society? It has lowered significantly since Richard joined us.
